A limited number of scholarships will be available for activists who would otherwise be unable to participate in the conference for financial reasons.

Scholarships will be awarded according to the following criteria:

- priority will be given to women;
- there is a limited number of scholarships for representatives of transgender organisations;
- geographical location of the organisation
- contribution to the work of ILGA-Europe and/or the LGBT movement in Europe.

Scholarship applicants will be informed of the result of the selection process as soon as decisions have been made and confirmation of funding for scholarships has been received.

Scholarship application

PLEASE ANSWER THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS:

1. Please, provide details of your motivation to take part in the conference (please note, the selection panel requires as much information as possible to make its decisions) .

2. Please, outline how you hope to use the experience gained through the conference for your daily work and how your participation in the conference will be of benefit to your organisation and to ILGA-Europe.

3. If you have received a scholarship for an ILGA-Europe or ILGA (world) conference or event before, please outline how you have used that experience to contribute to the work of ILGA, ILGA-Europe and/or the LGBT organisation you represent.

Your application will be assessed on your motivation and applicability of the skills gained during the conference in your LGBT work. Therefore brief one-sentence general answers reduce your chances of getting a scholarship.

The participants funded by scholarships are expected to take active and full part in the conference program. Reimbursements will be made on the basis of attendance. If the participant fails to take part in at least 75% of the conference program, ILGA-Europe reserves the right to not reimburse the participant's travel costs.

Also, If the participant fails to take part in at least 75% of the conference, an information letter will be sent to the organization this person comes from and that person will not be eligible for scholarship for the following two events organized by ILGA-Europe.

The only exception to the above mentioned rule is a reduced participation to the conference program because of duties connected to the conference, such as, for instance, the need to take part in charring pool meetings having been elected to the charring pool.

In accepting the scholarship, participants will be asked to formally agree to all of the above.

Failure to agree to the above rules will result in the withdrawal of the scholarship.
