Be Yourself – new video by Single Step

News, Bulgaria, Youth

One of our member organisations in Bulgaria, Single Step, have launched a new motivational video.

The video was created to inspire young people around the world to be true to themselves.

Produced thanks to the generous pro bono collaboration of a number of international professionals, companies and partners, ‘Be Yourself’ is an “artistic manifestation of courage, self-expression, human connection and community”.

The creators of the video have decided to provide it royalty-free, pro bono, to any LGBTI group or organisation which may like to use it locally, in order to inspire young LGBTI people.
