Fourth European Equality Gala moves to a new exciting venue in Brussels and introduces a special silent auction.

On 27 June ILGA-Europe will hold the fourth European Equality Gala, the biggest fundraising party for LGBTI movement in Europe and Central Asia. This year the event will be held in a new venue, the Centre for Fine Arts BOZAR in Brussels, and will once again feature entertainment, inspiring speeches and of course champagne. Profit from the gala event goes directly towards supporting the work of ILGA-Europe.

Tickets are no longer on sale.

Okeanide, the bearded queen from #Lithuwhateverania will be the host for the evening. And model and activist, Munroe Bergdorf (pictured above) will be will be performing a special guest DJ set.

The European Equality Auction is a brand new feature of the event. The silent auction is open to supporters of LGBTI equality everywhere, not just limited to gala guests. All profits of the auction go directly towards supporting the important work of ILGA-Europe and the LGBTI movement in Europe and Central Asia.
