

Rainbow Family Rights in Europe – Part 6: The Future

In the sixth and final episode in our mini-series on rainbow family rights in 2021, we're exploring the issues coming down the line.

Podcast, Legal Protection, Europe, European Commission, European Union, Family

ILGA-Europe's advocacy director, Katrin Hugendubel and Björn Sieverding from the Network of European LGBTIQ Families explore the issues coming down the line in terms of rainbow family rights, including direct child-parent recognition from birth, equal opportunities for children to find new parents by adoption or foster care, access to ART (including funding), and multi-parenting possibilities.