The Annual Review is ILGA-Europe's annual publication documenting legal, political and social developments in 54 countries and 4 European institutions over the past calendar year. It is a unique report tracking key positive and negative trends in relation to LGBTI equality and human rights in Europe and Central Asia.

This year's Review finds that 2022 was the most violent year for LGBTI people across the region in the past decade, both through planned, ferocious attacks and through suicides in the wake of rising and widespread hate speech from politicians, religious leaders, right-wing organisations and media pundits. Errata corrigenda

In Slovakia's chapter we reported "On 12 October, two young men Matúš Horváth and Juraj Vankuli?..." We believe this is incorrect, as it has been widely reported elsewhere that Juraj Vankuli? identified as non-binary. Matúš Horváth was openly bisexual.

Also in Slovakia's chapter we wrote "In late October, LGBTI NGOs launched the 'Ide ám o život/ 'It's About Our Life' initiative...". There is a typo error in the name of the initiative. The correct name is "Ide nám o život".
