Forced Out: LGBT People in Armenia

Report, Inclusion and Equality, Legal Protection, Armenia

The joint ILGA-Europe and COC report is the first of its kind to be published about same-sex relationships and LGBT people in Armenia. It explores identities, common human rights violations, the landscape of LGBT organising, health and HIV/AIDS, and relevant legal aspects. It also provides recommendations to the Armenian government, donors, LGBT activists and international organisations.

Forced Out: LGBT People in ArmeniaDownload